

Grappa is obtained from our the batch distillation of selected grape skins and seeds. They are processed fresh, so as to save their varietal fragrance. The use of Bain-Marie copper alembic stills allows for a finer grappa, delivering a well-defined, exciting sensory character.

ABV: 42%